

Dance Instructor Job Description for Hermann Sons Life School of Dance

Hermann Sons Life is looking for highly motivated and dedicated part-time dance instructors who can teach tap, ballet, jazz and some tumbling. Applicants need to be experienced and love to work with children.

We are seeking a dance instructor who is engaging and positive to be part of our company. Applicants must be skilled with up-to-date dance technique and terminology. Instructors must be able to choreograph and put together an end-of-season dance recital.

The dance assistant positions are in the San Antonio and surrounding areas. Pay is based on experience, and mileage may be paid depending on the location.

Instructors must be willing to work with parents and volunteers, be organized, prepared, efficient in keeping records and dependable.

Applicants must apply online @ <https://www.hermannsonslife.org/employment/home-office/>

Applicants must be able to pass a background check and a credit check.

Our company values commitment, family and respect.

Apply today!